Pick Up Lines

- Don't Use Them... ever... unless it's a contest.
- Use the formula: Hi + Truth + Question = Start of conversation
- Hey, I've seen you around but I don't think we've actually met before, I'm Bowe. What's your name?
- At school: Hey, I think we have the same Chemistry class. I'm Bowe. How are you doing in the class?
- At the mall: Hi. I love that store. Do they have a good sale going right now?
- All this opens the door without making it awkward.

The Truth

- Girls don't really care what you're asking.
- They already know if they want to talk to you, just by the way you approach.
- You're just providing an opportunity to have a conversation.

Body Language
